Exclusivity is guaranteed. Available at Avery Fine Perfumery (020 7629 1892).

Biarritz. Philippe, qui était la seule personne qui pouvait gérer les commandes, ne put continuer cette activité durant quelques mois seulement. Jusqu'à un moment où il fut obligé de quitter son travail et la famille Fouquet, suite au déclenchement de la Seconde Guerre Mondiale. Profitant de ses derniers envois de parfums, Philippe cacha dans les livres décapés soigneusement à la main ses derniers flacons de Eau de Cologne que les Nazis ne s'en aperçurent.

Quelques décennies plus tard, grâce à la famille du majordome Hilly la formule d'Eight & Bob a été complètement récupérée, de même que son processus artisanal de production. Il est redevenu l'un des parfums les plus exclusifs et le préféré des hommes les plus élégants de nos jours.

Production limitée
En janvier 1914, Alfred Fouquet partit au CHAM, invité par l'ambassadeur italien. En outre de profiter de la chaleur du pays, il s'adonna à l'écologie pour aller à la recherche de plantes aromatiques pour enrichir ses compositions. À son retour à Biarritz, il parvint à en récolter plusieurs flacons d'Eight & Bob. À son retour à Paris, il parvint à en récolter plusieurs flacons d'Eight & Bob.
